HEAVY DOWNPOUR LEAVES THE COURSE HEAVY AND WITHDRAWALS ARE MANY.

Southern Maid Is Returned Winner of Edwenwold Stakes Without Serious Opposition-Attempt to Poison Flabbergast Fails.

Ality as a mud runner and won with much in reserve.

The committee of the Canadian Racing Associations met this morning, but little business was transacted aside from the licensing of trainers and jockeys. The suspension against jockey Deronde was raised, but the lad was fined $50 for striking Suyder with his whip in one of the races run on the closing day at Fort Eric. The recommendation by the Fort Eric stewards that jockey Turner's mounts be confined to the horses of his employers, Amos Turney and William M. Martin, was confirmed. This means that Turner cannot accept outside mounts in the future. The lad's handling of Carlton G. and Blackford in particular was far from pleasing to the officials. Gross' handling of Dynamo also came in for criticism, as did W. Ward's handling of a couple of horses.

The following is a list of the licenses granted at today's meeting:

Ing of a couple of horses.

The following is a list of the licenses granted at today's meeting:
Trainers—H. C. Airhart, J. D. Adkins, J. S. Baldwin, W. H. Baker, R. E. Campbell, James S. Everman, J. W. Foreman, George Ham. T. P. Hayes, William Hurley, W. O. Joplin, John Lowe, H. Louden, J. H. Mead, P. J. Miles, L. A. McGroarty, Robert McMillan, J. F. McCanley, H. S. Newman, William Perkins, R. J. Powers, Kay Spence, W. J. Speirs and John Walters.

Jockeys—W. Andress, J. L. Callahan, R. Goose, Ted Koerner, J. McCahey, E. Martin, W. W. Taylor, F. Teahan and A. Shipton.

H. G. Bedwell arrived from Hamilton this morning with Prince Ahmed, Billy Venderveer and Paton. Green B. Morris arrived from Porter, Ind., as did Kay Spence. They had four horses between them. An attempt was made last night to poison Amos Turney's racer Flabbergast, the colt that won the mile dash at Windsor this afternoon. One of the stable hands, on his return from town last night at about 12 o'clock, saw a man come out of Flabbergast's stall just as he reached the stable. Some of the men about the stable were aroused and, on entering the stall, a silk sponge soaked with a slimy gray substance was found at the stall door. The culprits evidenty had been frightened away before the sponge could be inserted into the nostril of the horse. The grounds were searched, but to no avail. Detectives have been put on the case, but it is doubtful if the guilty ones can be caught, as the description given of the man seen running away from the stable was neagre.

description given of the man seen running away from the stable was meagre.

Carroll Rejd was a visitor at Windsor today, having arrived from Cincinnati this morning.

John Reardon was claimed out of the seventh race by R. G. Martin for $1,350.

SARATOGIANS STRONGLY FAVOR RACING.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 17.—The merchants and citizens of this place are raising, by subscriptions, a considerable sum of money that will be offered to the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses for a special race during the meeting which is to be held here throughout the month of August. Local sentiment is strongly in favor of the sport. President Kelly, of the Village Board, voiced the general views of the people of Saratoga in a statement that he made a day or two ago, as follows:

"There is no question in my mind but that the coming season will be one of the best Saratogians have seen in years. The people of Saratoga are doing all in their power, both in the matter of laying out money and preparing the town for the reception of the race followers, and I am sure they will not be disaccointed in their returns.

"It seems to me that the future of racing in New York State rests in the success or failure of the Saratoga meeting this year. We are going to do all we can to make it a success. Of course, the law will be strictly enforced in the matter of bookmaking, but there will be no heel-tracing methods used, and so long as there are no fiagrant violations of the anti-betting laws, sport followers will not be molested. In fact, any one who attempts to interfere with the sport, unless he has strong reasons for so doing, will find himself mighty unpopular in this village."

FALL STAKES AT BLUE BONNETS.

Montreal, Que., July 17.—Thursday, August 7. has been announced by the Montreal Jockey Club as the date for the closing of the stakes to be run during the fall meeting at Blue Bonnets, September 6-13. There are to be nine stakes, which is an increase of one over former years. The new stake is the Blue Bonnets Breeders' Stake, which has been instituted with a view to encouraging the breeding of thoroughbreds in the Province of Quebec.

The management of the club has seen fit to increase the sales of the Kirch Public Seen fit to of Quebec.

The management of the club has seen fit to increase the value of the King's Plate the Provincial Nursery and the Champlain Stakes. For the past three years each running of the King's Plate has seen an increase in value. Four of the nine stakes are for horses owned by Canadians, two are through the steeplechase field, and the remaining three are on the flat.

PRINCE EUGENE HARD LUCK RACER.

Whitney Horse Again Gets Into Difficulty in Handicap at Belmont Park.

New York, July 17.—R. F. Carman won another stake at Belmont Park this afternoon when his filly. Water Lady, was returned the winner of the Greenfield Selling Stakes, the feature of the card. Mr. Carman had anothr good colt, Surprising, in the race, but he withdrew him and trusted to the filly and the move was a wise one, as Water Lady made good after a pretty struggle with the two choices, Anytime and Holiday. The last named two raced heads apart for the first half mile, during which Anytime suffered by being bumped several times by Holiday. In the last furlong Water Lady came from the rear on the extreme outside and the three fought it out to the finish with Water Lady first home by half a length, while Holiday was a similar margin in advance of Anytime, It is more than likely that Anytime was the best of the field, for in the final sixteenth Anytime was sandwiched in between Water Lady and Höliday, in exceedingly close quarters.

The tabulated history of the Greenfield Stakes is as follows:

Year Winner. Wt. Jockey, Val. Time.

as follows:
Year. Winner. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time,
1903 Ishlana 93 Larsen $1,545 1:08
1906 Sewell 110 Sewell 1,860 1:01
1907 Woodlane 108 Nicol 1,955 1:01½,
1908 High Private 112 E. Dugan, 1,790 :553%,
1910 Frank Mullens, 107 Taplin 1,050 :544%,
1913 Water Lady 103 Rightmire 675 1:06
At 5 1-2 Furlongs in 1903. At 5-8 in 1906 and 1907. The stake was not run for in 1904, 1905 and 1909. No racing in 1911 and 1912.

At 5 1-2 Furlongs in 1903. At 5-8 in 1906 and 1907. The stake was not run for in 1904, 1905 and 1909. No racing in 1911 and 1912.

Harry Payne Whitney's hard luck colt, Prince Eugene, again met defeat. He ruled an odds-on choice for the handicap at one mile and finished third to Reybourn and Sickle. He began slowly and on the far turn, when Troxler tried to go through along the rail, he was pinched off and had to be taken up sharply. Afterward he was slightly bothered in the stretch, where he made a wide turn. This permitted Sickle to get close to him and it was nip and tuck between them to the finish, with Reybourn the winner by a nose. Prince Eugene finished a length and a half back.

The stake books of the Saratoga Association, whose meeting will occupy all of next month at the Spa, reached the track today and were distributed among the horsemen.

Mose Goldblatt was among the arrivals here today. His mission is to try and secure the two crack youngsters, Stromboli and Flittergold, owned by August Belmont. Mr. Belmont is in Europe, but even if he was here, it is not likely that Goldblatt would be able to make the purchases, as the chairman of the Jockey Club probably desires to race them himself. Strombol's considered among horsemen the best two-year-old seen in the East.

Arrivals were Matt Winn and Mars Cassidy, the Well-known starter who will handle the flag during the Saratoga meeting.

The McTaggart family was conspicuous today, as Tomny won with War Horn and Monmouth, while the younger brother, Johnny, was the pilot of Reybourn. The former was suspended for two racing days for rough riding in the first race.

H. D. Brown was at the track today with his counsel, Fred Dallam. Mr. Brown has asked the Jockey Club for a statement of its account with the Maryland State Fair Association and all dues, including the one per cent, tax, will be added, Application for dates for the month of October at Laurel will be made and probably acted upon at the next meeting of the Jockey Club. Horsemen are pleased to learn t

PROTESTS FOLLOW MISS NICHOLS' VICTORY.

Payment of Purse and Bets on Race at Porter Suspended Pending Investigation,

Delightful and invigorating weather was an item that accounted in part for the best attendance of the week at Mineral Springs Park yesterday. So far as surface appearances went, the track, except that accounted in part for the best attendance of the week at Mineral Springs Park yesterday. So far as surface appearances went, the track, except at a few spots, seemed to be nearly at its best, but the time scored was so slow that it must have still been wet underneath the top cushion of dry dirt. However, all through the present meeting the track has been disappointingly slow. Last fall when it was new and raw such records were made over it that experienced furfmen said that in time it should prove about the fastest mile track in the United States, The horses running over it last fall were better than those now in action there. This would account for some of the difference but the chief fault is in the track itself. Probably scientific treatment by an experienced trackmaster would bring about the redemption of its early promise, but however that may be it is just now a slow track,

The only real sensation of the day came with the running of the sixth race. In this Bagley Bros. had an entry purporting to be the bay mare Miss Nichols, "aged," by Deceiver—Lady Eon. She was backed from 4 to 1 down to 8 to 5 and won in a canter. On the suspicion that she was a ringer and not a maiden, award of the race and payment of bets was suspended pending an investigation. In 1903 a filly of the breeding given was foaled as the property of Nichols Bros. In Kentucky. She went to the stud in Texas and in 1908 fealed a filly by Clonmell. Whether the mare that finished first yesterday is that mare, or not, remains to be established. In its way it is an interesting case and awarning to the officials to inspect entries carefully before permitting unknown horses to start.

Some rattling good finishes marked the racing. If was not a Steele day and the other riders had an inning, two veterans in W. Dale and Nicol scoring winning mounts and Dale rode a finish pleasing to witness. Mondon also gave Ivan Gardner a stretch ride worthy of note.

As a result of W. R. Hall's derogatory remarks concerning Jockey Feeney's handling of Eva Tan mining. (Wo veterans in W. Date and Meol scoring winning mounts and Dale rode a finish pleasing to witness. Mondon also gave Ivan Gardner a stretch ride worthy of note.

As a result of W. R. Hall's derogatory remarks concerning Jockey Feeney's handling of Eva Tanguay, in the fourth race, the judges ordered him to remove his horses from the track and denied him the further privileges of the course. Hall, who owns Eva Tanguay, was emphatic in his declaration that Feeney had pulled the mare.

B. Honn, owner of Tom McAfee, which started in the third race, Wednesday, was also ordered from the track for using reckless language.

After the finish in the opening race Goldlash was bid up from an entered price of $250 to $305 by J. Booker, and was bought in.

Jockey Steele's failure to land a winner yesterday cost his large following a big sum.

Higher Up came out of his race yesterday in a bad way and probably will be out of racing for the remainder of this year.

Several protests will be lodged, according to Judge Day, against the payment of any purse money to Miss Nichols, on the ground of ineligibility to the race, as she is supposed to have won at "bush" meetings. Vesterday's race was for maidens.

G. H. Keene, who races a string of horses is connection with his brother, J. O. Keene, was a visitor at the track.

MORE RACING FOR MONTANA.

Butte, Mont., July 17.—The followers of favorites received a setback today, not one of their choices winning. The layers were thereby enabled to recover part of their recent extensive losses.

H. I. Wilson announced today that a meeting of fourteen days, beginning August 30, would be given under his direction at Great Falls. Mont. This will follow the Anaconda meeting and will make a circuit of 28 days after the closing of Butte racing, with the added possibly of an extended meeting at Helena.

The proposed meeting at Deer Lodge will run in conflict with the Great Falls meeting, but as there are plenty of horses here, it is figured that successful meeting may be held at each place.

Jockey Warren, who was recently ruled off at Vancouver, was immediately ejected from the grounds on his arrival at the track today.

KEENE STUD TO BE SOLD IN THE EAST.

Lexington, Ky., July 17.—Solomon Sanford, administrator of the estage of the late James R. Keene, today wired Secretary Ken Walker, of the Kentucky Sales Company, that the disposal sale of the Keene thoroughbreds at Kingston Farm, near this city, would be held in Madison Square Garden on the night of September 2, instead of September 16 at Kingston Farm, as was originally planned. The principal reason given for making the change is the fact that the addition of the stallions Colin and Peter Pan to the other great stallions and marres, will make it possible to have a better sale in New York. The sale will be under the auspices of the Kentucky Sales Company. Lexington, Ky., July 17 .- Solomon Sanford, ad-

The entries for this year's Caulfield Cup, one of the big events of Australian racing, total 233, and for the Melbourne Cup 234. Last year the nomina-tions for the Caulfield Cup totaled 217. Cyclamont and Cyclone, two colts by Cyclades, the only son of Cyllene in America, ran first and second in the Selkirk Centennial Futurity at Winnipeg, for three-year-olds foaled in Canada west of the great lakes.

Some little dissatisfaction appears to have arisen among owners of horses in Tasmania owing to the rigorous enforcement by the island racing clubs of a new rule relating to the accompaniment of nominations by fees. Recently the Tasmanian Turf Clubrejected a score of entries on that account.

rejected a score of entries on that account.

The West Australian Turf Club (Perth) experienced a good year, the balance sheet showing that, after paying all working expenses in connection with the course, a profit of $74.710 resulted. The club distributed $124,450 in prize money over eighteen days, and among its receipts were $108,400 gross from the totalizator, $43,380 from bookmakers, $27,110 from nominations, $99,250 from admissions, $13,570 from race books, and, remarkable to relate, $7,470 from unclaimed dividends. In the way of totalizator tax, $23,560 was paid to the government. The fact of the totalizator alone benefiting the West Australian Turf Club $108,400 naturally raises the query as to what revenue the Australian Jockey Club would derive from the use of the machine at Randwick. At present our leading body does not receive one-half as much from betting as the Western Australia Turf Club and there is no comparison in the volume of business transacted.
